It was very fully attended. The rooms were even better filled than at the famous opening ball at the Stevens house several years ago. A great many strangers were present and added much to the interest with which the scene on the crowded dancing floor was viewed. Many of the ladies from abroad attracted marked attention by their beauty and tasteful dressing.

Auditor General Schell and Mr. Kerr, 8243. of the same office, were present from Harrisburg, which town was represented also by four or five ladies. Columbia contributed a liberal share of the guests, but we did not observe any of the promised faces from Reading. To describe the dresses we do not have the skill. They were of many colors and many of them very handsome. The display tell, was held for a further hearing.

diamonds did not sparkle everywhere. There were dresses long and dresses short; and it seemed that fashion had abandoned the effort to confine the female mind and figure to any particular mode of dress and that all were reveling in their unwonted liberty. There were skirts that hung two or three inches from the floor side by side those that swept it for as many yards. To those who enjoyed dancing the evening must have been one of great pleasure, because the floor was pleasant to their feet, the music to their ears and the partners to their souls. At least if they were not, they should have been. For the floor was nicely waxed, Taylor's orchestra played splendid dancing music-albeit a trifle too loud for the hall-and there were plenty of men and maids whence to select pleasant partners. Those who danced not had ample opportunity in the many and spacious parlors to sit in sweet converse or in the broad halls to promenade in gay contentment.

The supper was served at midnight, and after one o'clock the sedater of the guests began to leave, but it was four o'clock in the morning before the long programme of dances was finished and the party dispersed. The dancing cards were very elegantly designed with beautiful engravings bouse.

SUDDEN DEATHS.

Decease of Samuel Wilson and Absalem Fairer.

Samuel Wilson, a farm laborer, residing near the lower end of West Lampeter township, went to bed on Wednesday evening in apparently good health, and as he did not get up at his usual hour en Thursday morning his room was entered, and he was found dead in bed. Mr. Wilson was about 72 years of age, and leaves a wife and children. Absalom Fairer, residing at No. 305

North Lime street, was prostrated by a stroke of apoplexy last evening about half past five o'clock and died at ten o'clock. Mr. Fairer had suffered from a former stroke of apoplexy received a year or so ago, but had so far recovered as to be able to be about and attend to light business duties, and just prior to his stroke yesterday, appeared to be in his usual health. He was about 63 years of age and well known to most of our citizens, having been several years ago in the grocery business, and later kept a boot and shoe store on North Queen street. He was also for some years a tax collector, and a salesman in the furnishing house of Flinn & Breneman. He leaves two sons and two daughters, all married. His wife also survives him.

A Millionaire's Misfortune.

While sitting by the stove at her residence in Dorwart street this forenoon, the dress of Mrs. John Pontz took fire and was soon in flames. A daughter of Mrs. Pontz in attempting to put out the flames was badly burned. Captain Pontz, who was in an adjoining room, hearing her screams, ran to the assistance of his wife and succeeded in putting out the fire, but not until she had been very severely burned. Capt. Pontz's hands were also badly blistered by the fire.

I have sold at retail price since the 4th of December last 155 bottles of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, guaranteeing every bottle. I must say I never sold a medicine in my life that gave such universal satisfaction. In my own case, with a badly Ulcerated Throat, after a physician penciling it for several days to no effect, the Eclectric Oil cured it thoroughly in twenty-lour hours, and in threatened croup in my children this winter it never failed to relieve almost immediately. WEATHER INDICATIONS. WASHINGTON, Dec. 31.—For the Middle states clear or fair weather, slowly rising temperature, winds generally from south to west, and slowly falling barometer.

Condensed Telegrams. A reunion of soldiers' orphan graduates t Harrisburg to-day resolved to form a permanent organization similar to the G. A. R. and adjourned to meet in Harris. burg August 25. Simeon McKeow, an old colored man, drank three pints of whisky on a wager, at Seguin, Tex. Then he died. James H. Brady, alias Mooney, the burglar, who murdered his companion in erime, Edmund Lavaie, in a boarding house in Florence street, Boston, last February, has been arrested in Albany. Abe Rothschild has been acquitted of murder at Jefferson, Tex. The mayor of Athens, telegraphs to the lord mayor of London, that a magnificent and complete statue of Minerva Victorious a masterpiece of Phideas, has just been discovered.

The four story brick building at Coombs alley, Second and Arch street Philadel phia, occupied as a paint and varnish store by S. P. Wetherill & Co., Berry & Co., and Wm. H. Mitchell, burned this morning. Loss not less than $30, 000.

An autopsy in the case of President Anderwert, of Switzerland, who committed suicide on Saturday last, showed hypertrophy of the heart and an incipient softening of the brain. A colored Liberian sailor was found badly frozen near Flushing, L. I. His limbs will probably drop off if not amputated. Fire at Jackson, Mich., this morning destroyed the Marion house, Jackson City bank and half dozen stores. Loss $60,000 or $80,000. D. R. Boas, a saloon man, was shot and killed yesterday at Rogersville, Tex., it i supposed by James Elliston to whom he had refused credit for drinks. H. C. Rogers, a farmer living near Huntsville, Tex., was brutally stabbed by a man named Pickering who made his es-

Two Hotels Burned—Fighting the Flames Under Difficulties. ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Dec. 31.-The hotel Windsor, kept by M. A. Root andowned by David Giltiman, of Philadelphia, caught fire at six o'clock this morning from a heater in the cellar. The steam fire engine would not work, and as the efforts of the firemen were confined to an old hand engine, buckets and hatchets, the flames soon spr .d to the Dullmore house kept by J. R. Dull. Both buildings were destroyed, together with most of the furniture in the hotel Windsor. Much alarm was felt for the adjoining property, but luckily there was only a slight wind and the fire was confined to the two hotels named. The loss will aggregate $40,000.

Several firemen had their fingers and feet frozen. The Reading Election. PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 31.—The examinaion by the masters of the Philadelphia & HOLIDAY BOOKS, Reading railroad into the question of postponing the annual meeting until February first was begun here this morning.

It is Worth a Trial. "I was troubled for many years with Kidney Complaint, Grave!, &c.; my blood became thin; I was dull and inactive; could hardly crawl about, and was an old worn-out man alf over, and could get nothing to help me, until I got Hop Hitters, and now I am a boy again. My blood and kidneys are all right, and I am as active as a man of 20, although I am 72, and I have no doubt it will do as well for others of my age. It is worth the trial .- (Father.)
